A Note From Your Teachers

A Little Note About the First Few Weeks:

The beginning of a new dance season is an exciting time, but we also know that it can take a little time for everyone to settle into a new routine. The lobby may be a little busier than usual, and some dancers may feel nervous or need a little extra encouragement when it's time to go into class, and that's completely okay! We ask that you give your dancer, our teachers, and our studio a little grace and patience during these first few weeks as everyone gets comfortable and finds their rhythm. We are all on the same team, and together, we'll help every dancer feel confident, comfortable, and excited to come to dance each week!

Please note: you can view emails sent directly from AAD on your parent portal. Go to "Messages" and click on "Email History". No more searching for studio emails. They are all in one place!
